W. T. EXES RETURN FOR ANNUAL HOMECOMING

BIG PROGRAM PLANNED FOR COMING EVENT

T. H. McDonald of Pampa Is Head of W. T. Exes

CHAPEL PERIOD

Class Gatherings Held During Day and Night

W. T. exes will return Saturday for the annual Homecoming event. Plans being developed indicated that this will be one of the most impressive Homecoming events ever staged in Canyon, both as to the number of exes who will return, and as to the program which will be staged honoring the event.

T. H. McDonald, of Pampa, president of the Ex-Students Association, and his Board of Directors have planned a day of interesting programs, allowing plenty of time for old friendships to be renewed and new ones begun, with a fitting culmination in the football game between the Buffaloes and the Oklahoma City University Goldbugs, touted Oklahoma football machine.

"See You at Homecoming" Hundreds of ex-students are expected to return to their Alma Mater on this day and to take an active part in the celebration. "We'll see you at Homecoming," has become a slogan over the Panhandle this week among the ex-students and friends of the West Texas State Teachers College.

Big Program Activities for the day will begin with an assembly at eleven o'clock when a snappy program, including (Continued on last page)

Ex-Service Men Hold First Meet On Friday Night

Ex-service men gathered at the American Legion Hall Friday night for the first general meeting of the year. Nearly 200 ex-service men and Auxiliary members were present for the program, and to plan the work outlined for the coming year.

Jeff Fowler, adjutant, presided and introduced the various numbers of the program.

Music was furnished by the high school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Jesse D. Barker. A sing-song was conducted by Tom Knighton, assisted by Mrs. Knighton at the piano.

Commander Guy Harp outlined the program for the coming year, and invited every ex-service man in Randall county to join the organization, and to attend all of its meetings.

A short talk on citizenship was made by Clyde W. Warwick, who praised the high ideals of the American Legion.

Many ex-service men from the Palo Duro State Park camps were present and brought two entertainment numbers which were highly pleasing to the large audience. The novelty orchestra from Company 1824 played a number of selections, and a clogging contest was staged by three members of this company.

Bill Smith gave a reading, "A Jew Wedding," which was highly appreciated by the audience.

The program closed by two tap dancing numbers by Betty Lou Bagley, Pollyanna Pitts, Melva Gamewell and Betty Sternberg, accompanied by Dorothy Faye Rusk.

Among those who have attended the Order of the Eastern Star Convention being held in Amarillo this week are: Mrs. Alfred Bellah, Mrs. Frank R. Phillips, Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. P. F. Hicks, Miss Nora McCarty, Mrs. N. E. McIntire, Mrs. F. F. Ferrell, Mrs. M. L. Saddoris, and her mother, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Lorenzo Wirt, and Mrs. Lucy Brown.

Goldbugs To Battle Buffaloes Saturday

W. T. Herd Expected To Play Inspired Football

Football fans will witness one of the best games of the season on Buffalo Field Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock for the annual Homecoming event, when the Oklahoma City University Goldbugs will meet the Buffaloes in the annual clash.

Lashed with new determination by Friday's defeat, the Buffaloes have put in a hard week of practice getting ready for the Homecoming event. Regardless of the score, the Buffs are sure to give a good account of themselves next Saturday, as they have done throughout the season.

The Bugs have an enviable reputation as one of the best teams in the South and are rated a good deal better than the Buffaloes. They come to Canyon after a two weeks lay off, playing their last game October 13 with Oklahoma A. & M. and defeating them in a thrilling game of scores by a 19-13 margin. This ran O. C. U.'s total scores up to 116 points to their opponents' 34.

Strong Team The Texas Teachers have held some of the strongest teams in the Southwest to close scores and will be playing inspired football against the Goldbugs.

O. C. U.'s leading scorer and most sensational back, Cliff Pickens will be seen in action. Pickens is a real triple threat man and one of the most deceptive ball toters in Oklahoma.

The Goldbugs have eleven backfield men to pick from, several of them All-state players. According to Bug supporters, they have two backfields of equal strength.

Williams will call the game for O. C. U. He is rated as a crafty, level headed quarterback.

The toe of John Bentley, Bug Captain, will be used to prevent deep territory threats. He is also a good open field runner.

Haskell Holt, one of the best, if not the best, passers in Oklahoma, will be the tosser for O. C. U. Jack Sweet is another good back (Continued on last page)

School Trustees of 21 Counties to Meet Saturday

County school trustees from 21 Panhandle counties have been invited to attend a conference in Canyon Saturday morning. The session will be held in room 17 at W. T.

Frank R. Phillips, chairman of the Randall County School trustees, has issued the invitation to members of the county boards, and has planned the program for the session. He believes that most of the 21 counties will be represented owing to the importance of the meeting.

E. E. Chamness, deputy state superintendent, will address the meeting on the duties of the county board. Other important subjects will be discussed.

This will be the second meeting of school trustees from the rural school districts held here. In September, 200 school trustees, together with county judges and county superintendents, met here upon invitation of Judge S. B. Orton to discuss new school legislation.

First Frost Comes Sunday Night—No Damage is Reported

A light frost was reported Monday morning by many citizens, but it was found largely in low places along the creeks. No damage was done owing to the very small amount.

Ducks are reported to be fully two weeks later this year in returning from the north where they have spent the summer. Those who observe weather conditions are certain that this indicates a late fall for the Plains.

Dairymen Study Provisions New Milk Ordinance

Several Randall county dairymen met with Dr. E. W. Little of Amarillo Friday and Saturday to discuss the provisions of the new milk ordinance recently adopted by Canyon. During the illness of Lewis Dodson, Dr. Little will inspect the dairies which are furnishing Canyon's milk supply, through arrangements made with the Amarillo city administration.

Dr. Little states that all of the dairymen who met with him are attempting to co-operate to the fullest extent. Inspection of all dairies will disclose those who have not equipped themselves to handle milk under the terms of the new ordinance.

One Case Found of Horse-Mule Disease Locally

The first case of encephalomyelitis to be found in this section was reported this week by Dr. E. W. Little, city health officer of Amarillo, who is acting Dairy Inspector for Canyon.

A six-year-old gelding owned by D. E. Phillips is affected by this disease, which is one of horses and mules only. The disease is not transmissible to man. When the disease hits a community only about 10% of the animals are affected, and of this number about 50% of the cases are fatal.

The serum treatment is the only known remedy, and it must be administered in the early stages of the disease.

Many fatalities have resulted from this disease recently on the South Plains, with the heaviest losses in the communities of Way-side, Tulia, and Plainview.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Saddoris and Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Neblett attended the medical association meeting in Plainview Tuesday.

TRUCK RULE HOLDS WORK ON HIGHWAY

Gohmert's Hands Tied Because of Policy Adopted

SETTLE TODAY?

Washington Officials in Conflagration Yesterday on Situation

Lack of trucks for the highway job from Canyon to the Palo Duro Park still holds up the job.

Officials in Washington are still fussing among themselves as to who is boss of the job.

In the meanwhile, fine working weather prevails, but winter is gradually approaching, with its accompanying bad weather.

County Engineer E. H. Gohmert stated this morning that no solution seems at hand, unless there is a ray of hope in the conflagration in Washington yesterday between Relief Director Hopkins and Secretary Ickes. Ickes has offered the money to Texas, but Hopkins last week believed that too much was being requested for Panhandle relief.

Such stringent rules have been imposed by Hopkins, through Lawrence Westbrook that only limited work is possible on the highway, and no trucks are available for use.

Congressman Marvin Jones took the matter directly to the President last week with the assurance yesterday that the "misunderstanding" would be settled.

District Engineer W. J. Van London is of the firm belief that the highway to the Palo Duro Park is the most important in the Panhandle, and will start a large crew of men to work as soon as orders are received to allow the use of trucks.

Caliche pits have been opened by Mr. Gohmert and trucks lined up for work, ready to start the caliche moving just as soon as the higher ups decide who is boss of the works.

Complete Work On Wheat by Saturday

Allen Early Gives Program of Magic at Rotary Luncheon

Allen Early, member of the Amarillo Rotary Club, gave the program at the Canyon Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. He is an amateur magician and put on a series of tricks and sleight-of-hand performances which kept the members guessing. Mr. Early is a business man who has this work as his hobby, and has entertained many luncheon clubs with his programs.

G. G. Foster was welcomed back to the Club as a member.

Rev. E. C. McKenzie, of Pampa, former member, was a visitor. Other visiting Rotarians were: Jack Allen, C. R. McAfee, Ross Rogers, Gus Leftwick and Allen Early, all of Amarillo.

Large number O. E. S. Visited the Palo Duro Park

A large number of delegates from the Eastern Star convention being held in Amarillo visited the Palo Duro State Park Monday. A motorcade brought the delegation, giving the visitors an opportunity to view the Palo Duro from the rim drive. Several women inspected the work which is in progress.

J. B. Elliston assisted in directing the party on the trip of inspection.

Many visitors had never before viewed the Palo Duro, and were highly impressed with the possibilities of building the park into one of the most scenic spots in Texas.

J. D. McNeil was brought home Monday from Amarillo where he has been in the hospital for the past week.

Rev. E. C. McKinzie of Pampa was a business caller in the city Tuesday.

Complete Check of Fields in County Made by Farmers

Committees are working on the wheat allotment campaign with a view of closing the work by the end of this week.

W. H. Upchurch stated yesterday that wheat fields of the county had been measured by farmers during the past week, and that all applications had been carefully checked by the community committees. While the acreage is still above the amount allowed for Randall county, he believes that the final figure will come within the total set by the government. It was found when the list was published that Randall county was about 15 per cent above the total allowed by the government.

After the acreage has been fully checked and passed upon by the community and the county committees, the county's list will be filed with federal officials who have been assigned to this territory. At present they are working out of Amarillo, but have been here several times helping the county committee in its work. When these field representatives approve the list, it will be forwarded to Washington for approval of the Secretary of Agriculture. If everything works out like Mr. Upchurch hopes it will, Randall county's list of wheat farmers should go to Washington within the coming two weeks. After approval there, contracts will be presented to the farmers as a final step in the allotment campaign.

Community and county committees were highly praised by Mr. Upchurch for their splendid work of the past week and the progress shown in closing up the work of the county. It is possible that Randall county will be among the first counties in Northwest Texas to complete its work, although it has one of the largest lists in this section.

In the check-up it is found there are 71 wheat farms in Randall county whose owners live in 16 states besides Texas, and one lives in Old Mexico.

Rev. Chas. Dickey Called as Pastor Presbyterian Church

Rev. Charles L. Dickey of Mesquite was called Sunday by the local Presbyterian Church. His acceptance was received this morning, and he will assume the pastorate on November 15th. Rev. Dickey was here two weeks ago to preach at the local church.

The new pastor is a native Texan. He is a graduate of Princeton University and has done graduate work at S. M. U. He is holding his first pastorate at Mesquite where he has served for three and one-half years. His work there has been highly successful.

Rev. Dickey is 28 years of age. He is married and has one child. Mrs. Dickey's parents live at Childress, and both the minister and his wife are familiar with conditions in West Texas.

Seven More Cotton Checks Received by Randall Farmers

Seven more cotton checks were received Tuesday by County Agent W. H. Upchurch to hand to Randall county farmers who participated in the cotton plow up campaign. The amount of the checks was $815.

Last week 24 checks were received, amounting to $5,207.

Three more cotton farmers participated in the plow up campaign, but the checks have not been received.

R. H. Wright left Sunday for Mineral Wells where he expects to remain for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Landers of McLean spent Sunday at the home of their son, Le Roy Landers.

LOCAL FIRMS GET CONTRACTS FOR BARRACKS

Carpenters Will Start Work on Next Monday

MANY NEW MEN

Plans Being Drawn For Permanent Buildings at Park

Contracts were let Monday night to local firms for the erection of barracks at the Palo Duro State Park in which the C. C. C. men will be housed during the winter. Material will be on the grounds by next Monday to start about 80 carpenters and helpers on the construction.

Major J. A. Watson returned Monday night from Fort Sill where complete arrangements for the erection of the barracks were made, including the awarding of the contracts. He was accompanied by J. H. Hankley, who will be superintendent of construction.

The lumber for the barracks will be furnished by the Burrow Lumber Company, and the hardware by the Thompson Hardware Company. These were the two large contracts let in competition with many outside bidders who were after the orders from the government.

All carpenters in Canyon have been listed and indications are that all local men will be given an opportunity to work on the barracks. It will be necessary to employ several outside carpenters since there are not enough in Canyon to do the work in the required time. All men on the job will be required to take their lunches to the camp and (Continued on last page)

Buffaloes Lost Friday To Oklahoma Central Teachers, 12-0

The Buffaloes lost Friday at Ada, Okla., against the East Central Teachers, 12 to 0.

"No alibi is offered," stated Coach Al Baggett and members of the team. "The Buffaloes did not play the brand of ball which would win."

The team left Thursday morning at 5:00 o'clock and did not arrive at Ada until 11:00 o'clock that night owing to trouble with the big bus. The men were not in condition to play football when they took the field at 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon.

This was the first game that the Oklahoma crew had won this year. The lighter Oklahomaans set the Texans back on their heels after the first quarter, Vickers scoring the first touchdown in the second period as the Tigers launched a rapid-fire attack. In the third period, the Tigers swept the visitors inside their five yard line but were unable to score.

Lawson returned a punt 17 yards to start the second touchdown drive in the final period, and then circled end for 19 yards. Vickers rammed the line for the second score.

The Texans were in East Central territory but once in the last period when three passes carried the ball from their own 15 yard line deep into Tiger ground but a pass into the end zone grounded as the game ended.

HAD LEG BROKEN

J. C. Bellah, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bellah, had his leg broken Monday at the public school grounds while practicing football. He is reported to be resting as well as could be expected.

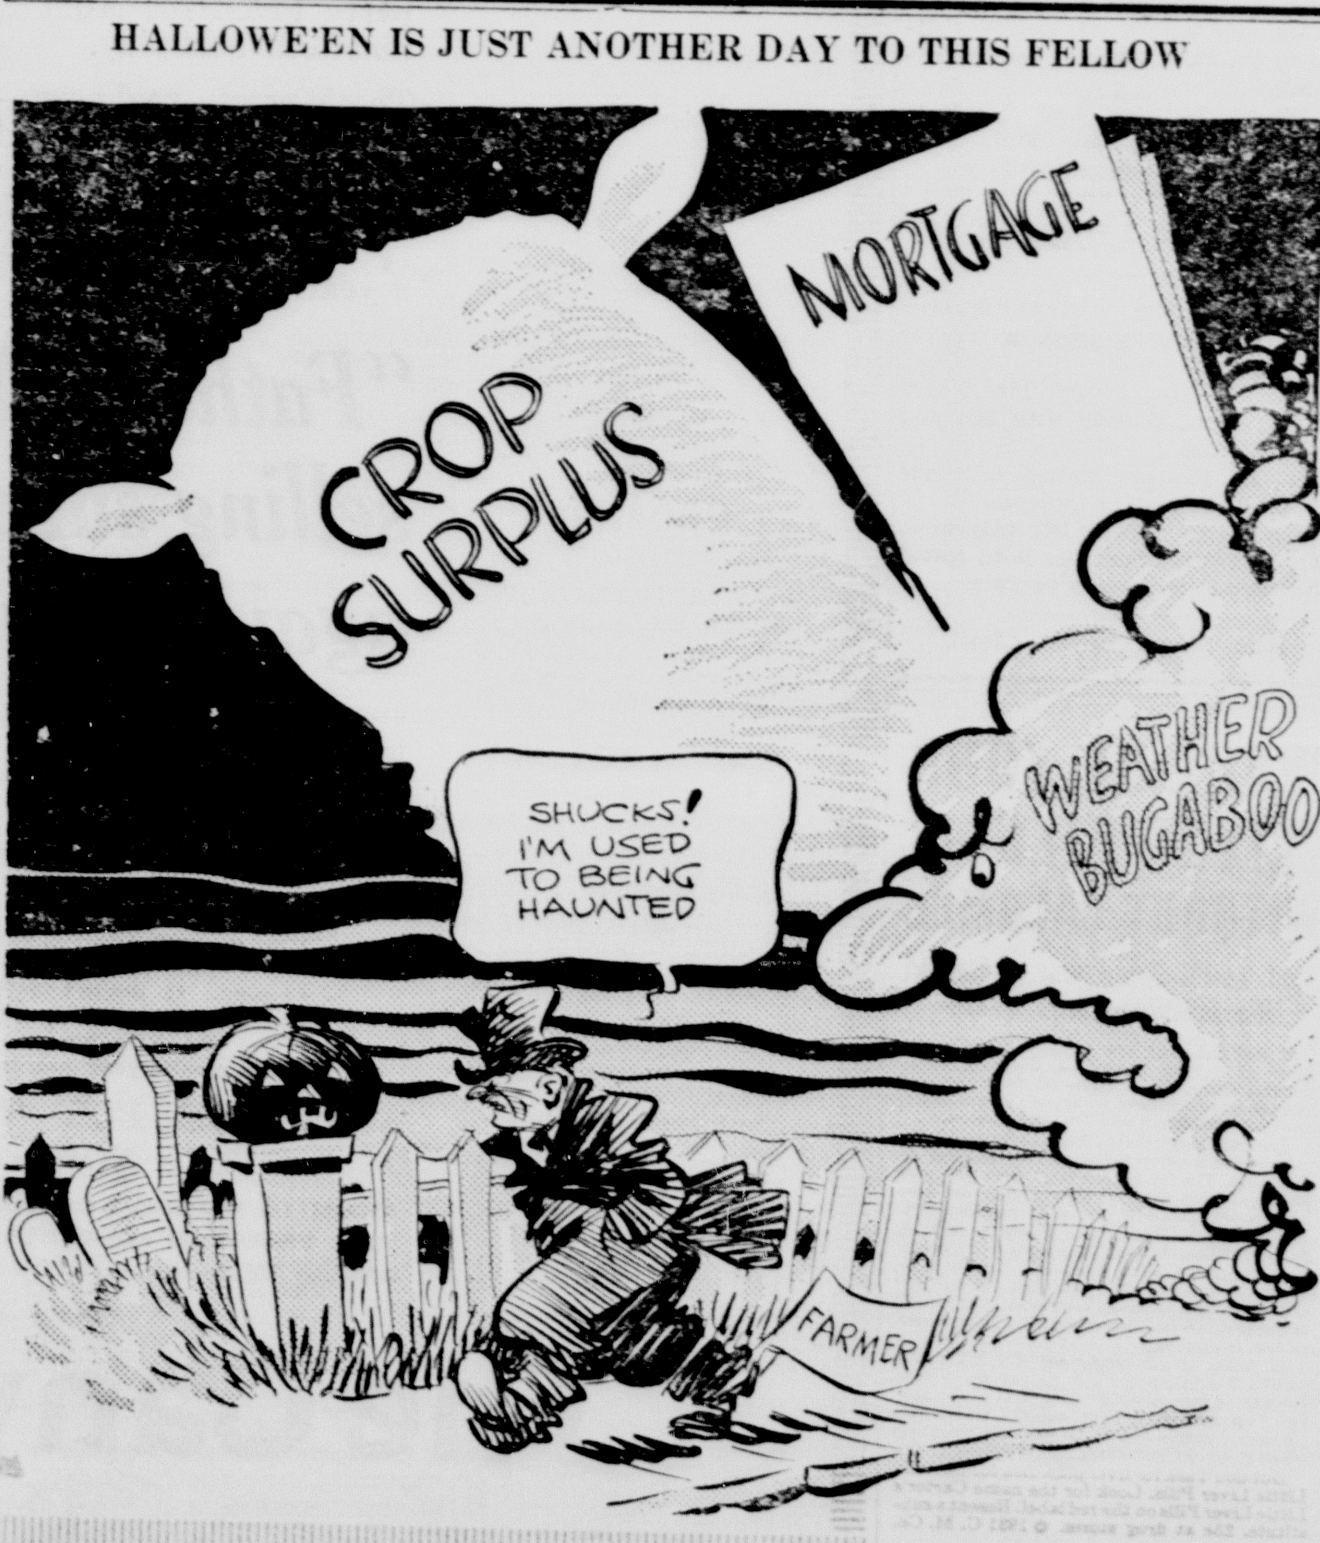

Doyle Gregory and family of Plainview are visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Oscar Gano.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Money and children of Clayton, N. M., were here for the week end.

Mrs. J. T. Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cole spent Sunday in Lockney visiting relatives.

President Roosevelt talked again to the American people Sunday night, frankly telling them that while the nation was recovering that it would take time for a complete recovery. NRA is going to work, according to the president. If it will not work one way, it will be made to work in another way. The President is sold on only one program—to restore prosperity in this nation. It may be necessary to change the present set-up, and to inaugurate new methods of procedure, but the goal will be reached. It was heartening to hear the President proclaim that the value of the dollar was going to be set by foreign nations. This nation will have something to say about this value, and has the machinery necessary, and the wealth necessary to enforce his proposal to establish a stable value for the dollar. The third address of the President to the American people was highly appreciated and was inspirational.

Postmaster General Farley came to Texas to look over the political situation. The complex problem of the Fergusons and their friends, as opposed by a large body of the political leaders in the State made it necessary for the national administration to have first hand knowledge as to Texas conditions. The leading anti-prohibitionists of the state are peeved over patronage which has been handed out. The anti carried the state for the repeal of the 18th amendment, but the dries have been getting the political plums. Naturally the wets are good and sore over the situation. They are wondering why they have been so grossly neglected when the political pie was cut. As a result, young Joe Bailey is being groomed as the leading wet for next year and will probably run against Senator Connally. The wets are demanding to run the political machine, feeling that they have control of the situation.

Governor Alfalfa Bill over in Oklahoma reports he will not ask for re-election but has selected his successor. Texas is not so fortunate. Governor Pa said some time ago that Governor Ma's successor would be C. C. McDonald, but along came the special session, nosing into Ferguson's affairs, so it will be necessary for Governor Ma to run again, in order that the Ferguson name be again vindicated.

Why not recognize Russia? The Soviet government has had charge of affairs over there and have not made any more of a mess of things than most of the European governments, and not little more of a mess than some American cities and counties. So long as Russians will pay for what they buy, good business dictates that we sell to them.

President Roosevelt announces that the government will help the cattle raisers. The cattle industry has been hit harder than anything else in the nation, and shows no indication of recovery. Processing will likely start within a short while in order to save the remaining cattlemen who are not broke.

Dinner Styles Strike Glamorous Note

LATE SEMI-FORMAL WARDROBE FEATURES BROADCLOTH OR WOOL CREPES, IN BLACK, BROWN, GREEN, AND STRAWBERRY

BY HARRIET

YOUR semi-formal wardrobe is all important this year. Dinner suits and frocks have as prominent a place in the well-planned wardrobe as do street and office dresses or gowns for formal occasions.

The new mode is an elegant one and it naturally follows that dinner suits will be glamorous.

No longer do ladies go to dinner in just any little frock. And when it comes to a theater party, putting a clean collar on your office outfit is all wrong. There are costumes designed especially for such occasions.

Wool dinner suits are the newest thing this fall. Broadcloth is used. So are all the lovely wool crepes.

They really are suits and not evening gowns with matching jackets. The ankle-length skirts are topped by blouses of some handsome fabric and the suit coat is worn right over the blouse.

MOST of the coats are fur-trimmed. Some have fur collars and others have fur sleeves or capelets covering the sleeves.

Black is a good choice. Dark brown, green, and blackberry are next in importance.

You must pay special attention to the blouses which go with your dinner suit. The more luxurious the fabric, the better. Lame, satin, velvet, velveteen, and beautiful heavy, ribbed crepes are shown.

The woman who doesn't want a dinner suit can dine and attend the theater in a dinner gown. They, too, are ankle length and most of them have long sleeves. The neckline must be high in front, but you can have it cut low in back if you choose.

Wool is not used so profusely for dinner dresses. But satin, velvet, ottomans, and brocades are.

A DINNER suit that is particularly flattering to the younger miss is made of black broadcloth. It is a copy of a famous model introduced at the Paris fall openings.

The straight skirt is ankle-length and the matching jacket has a surplice closing. The ascot scarf on the coat ties under the chin. Capelets of sleek seal start at the shoulder and cover the long sleeves of the jacket.

The outfit includes a cream-colored satin blouse with a high, wrap-around neckline effect.

Perfect for the matron as well as for her younger sister is a wine-colored velvet dinner gown with long sleeves. The neckline is high in front, low in back.

It has a Victorian dust ruffle that is new and chic. The shoulder is adorned with four lush flowers, which Paris favors, and the belt is fastened with a lovely rhinestone buckle.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Remedy's substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Many W. T. Co-Eds Are Holding Jobs

Young Women Do Not Begrudge Time at Tasks

Doing everything from making beds to running an office, seventy-three co-eds at the West Texas State Teachers College are paying their expenses in whole or in part this year while they struggle along the paths of learning. Though it may not be exactly exciting to arise early and go to bed late, it's pretty much of a challenge, say most of these young women who are willing to sacrifice a portion of their time to do small tasks in order that they may spend some time in doing bigger things.

Work Allotted Hours

Many of these girls are working for room and board, and several work a certain number of hours a day and receive pay accordingly. In no case does the college advise a woman student to work more than three hours a day while she is enrolled in school, and the institution seeks to keep the rate of wages high enough to enable a student to earn enough in that amount of time to support herself in school. This list of women who are working at jobs does not include some 90 girls who are enrolled in Randall Co-Operative Home and who do one hour of work each day to pay a portion of their living expenses, nor does it include the many who have worked and saved money for their expenses.

Some twenty of these 73 young women are on the pay roll of the college as office or student assistants or in charge of college publications.

List is Long

ROTARYANS SURPRISE THEIR HUSBANDS

Members of the Rotary club received invitations to the "house of witches" last night. Searching the town, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hill was found to meet the description, and the club gathered. The program of song was interrupted by the march of hooded ghosts, bearing a sign, "find your wife." This proved not such an easy task for some of the Rotarians. The gathering of the Rotarians was a complete surprise to most of the club members.

Following was a short program in charge of Mrs. Joe Hill. Mrs. Clyde Warwick welcomed the Rotarians. Mrs. H. A. Brown sang, and Mrs. J. D. Barker played a piano solo. Dr. S. L. Ingham gave a violin solo. Mrs. Hill conducted a contest of identifying the club members through descriptive phrases.

Following a series of games of 42, refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream, cheese and coffee were served.

Launch First Sky Battleship

With the launching of this huge British flying boat, the world's first aerial battleship took to the air at Brough, Yorkshire, England. With a wing span of 97 feet, a length of 70 feet, and height of nearly 26 feet, the plane is capable of 132 miles an hour. It is the first flying boat to carry a gun capable of firing shells. In addition, the plane is equipped with a machine gun and bomb-release controls.

1933 Automobile Toll, Statistics Show, May Exceed That of 1932

The chart illustrates the main causes of automobile accident fatalities in 1932. Two "freak" accidents of 1933 are shown above and at right. When a coupe driven by a Los Angeles police officer skidded into the path of an oncoming street car, the auto was crushed between the street car and a telephone pole. The car shown at right had been parked on a sloping street several minutes before. A defective emergency brake failed to hold, with this unusual result.

STATISTICS obtained during the wane of the 1933 summer touring season reveal that nearly 20,000 persons have died, and more than 570,000 have been injured, in 523,000 automobile accidents which have taken place during the first nine months of this year. These figures would be optimistic in contrast with those of 1932 were it not for the fact that since June of this year, the percentage of fatalities has taken a decided uptrend. A development which indicates that the total automobile casualties in 1933 may pass the 1932 record—29,000 dead and 904,800 injured in 745,300 accidents.

For some reason, educational campaigns, improved safety devices, better and more foolproof automobiles, and modern road construction have failed to check, to any appreciable extent, these terrible accident tolls.

At fault alike are the careless driver and the equally careless pedestrian. Most accidents, statistics reveal, have been caused by drivers who drove at an excessive rate of speed, and by those who did not have the right of way.

Other forms of carelessness which contributed their share of accidents have been driving off the road, failure to signal, cutting in, passing on the wrong side, and passing on a curve or hill.

Nearly half of the jaywalkers who met death were crossing either against signals, diagonally, between intersections, or from behind parked cars.

If the death and disaster that now fall on innocent people, through the year and over America as a whole, were concentrated into one calamity, we would shudder at the tremendous catastrophe. The late Calvin Coolidge said this back in 1924. The statement is just as true today.

The toll of lives lost in auto accidents in one year, it has been estimated, exceeds by far the number of lives lost in all national domestic tragedies of major importance since the sinking of the battleship Maine. This includes fires, floods, theater disasters, aviation accidents, and other disasters. In the last 15 years, the auto has killed 325,000 people.

A STUDY of accident statistics reveals some interesting facts. Sunday, it seems, is the most dangerous day for driving; Saturday is almost as hazardous. The reason, of course, is that on the holiday and half-holiday more automobiles are on the highways.

The most dangerous hours of the day, statistics show, are those between 5 and 8 in the evening. From 5 to 6, the greatest number of auto accidents occur, and from 7 to 8 the most deaths have resulted from accidents.

Freshman Team To Play Amarillo's Crack Sandies Fri.

Friday the W. T. Freshmen will play the touted Amarillo Sandies under the lights of Buffalo Stadium. The W. T. Fish and Sandie game comes as the test of the Sandstorms before their crucial game with their district rivals, the Pampa Harvesters, who are scheduled to play the yearlings before they meet the Amarillo eleven.

The Golden Sandstorms have swept everything they have met this season off its feet to an ignominious defeat. Last week they demonstrated their power by swamping the strong Wichita Falls eleven to the tune of 38-7.

The Frosh have played only one game, and though they showed a world of strong versatility in the various phases of the game, they lacked team work. They trampled the Wayland Jackrabbits in their own pasture by the score of 26-0.

Coach Jones has concentrated on team work in the playing formation for the past week and for this week he will drill his men against the strong aerial attack of the Sandies.

In a recent game with Sweetwater, the Sandies swamped the District Two hopefuls with an air attack, gaining 387 yards through passes.

The Yearlings may counter attack with passes, since they have Burson and Allee, two target passers, and Davis and Weaver to receive. Davis is one of the best pass snappers ever to come to W. T.

On the defense, Jones will rely on "Windy" Jackson as a line backer, while his line is built of heavy, charging men.

Say, all you all, ain't this weather the beautiest? But I've got it fooled one way anyhow, cuz I've got me ol' red flannels. I have! And oh my, if they ain't grand on these 'ere cold mornin's! You know, I jest love them ol' flannels; had 'em nigh onto five years now. Red allus wuz my faveit color. Red's a fightin' color, it is. An' I shore wuz one fightin' when I wuz about the age an' likeness uv some uv you all. Now I 'member wunst—but say, You'll think I'm jest an ol' wind-bag tootin' his horn 'cause nobody else will. You won't believe it, but I'll shure tell ye sometime. It wuz a hair raiser, an' I wuzn't much scared, but anyhow, being as how Pa'd jest shaved my haid, I didn't turn a hair no way.

But don't let me git off the subject of red flannels. I believe if more uv you youngsters had to hop into your red flannels every winter the way my ol' ma made me do, you wudn't be struttin' around with them fancy socks 'n haf your shanks a shinin' 'n so cold yer wisdom teeth ar chattering. I spect you all wudn't let eny uv yer red flannels show, but now, me, I like to see a big red blooded man in red flannels. I can jest tell by the way he walks that he's a sportin red flannels, the way his ma told him 'n I'm proud uv 'em.

Now you football boys, how many uv you all wear red flannels? Nary one, eh? Ye're doing fine, but if yer captain wud cum down 'n git a pair uv me flannels, ye'd shore be one flyin' team. He cud jest lead ye on to one fine victory—district honors.

Win that next game 'n I'll give ye yer pick uv me flannels. Scoop, I can't give the whole team a pair, but these ar such a nice color, one pair'll do the whole bunch.

Well, folks, it's bed time, an' I guess I'll hit the hay, as the ol' farmer said when he fell thru the barn loft. Cactus Cal.

Tawamana Club Feature Birds In Program

The Tawamana Club program of Oct. 24 featured birds.

Claudia Fae Teal gave a talk on doves; Mary Ella Lowe gave the life of the quail, while the duck's life was discussed by Irene Thompson.

The program was concluded by victrola recordings of various bird calls, which the students identified. Cookies and lemonade were served of the club members.

THE STORY OF MY LIFE

—Carruth.

I was born when I was very young in Arkansas, away off in the sticks. My father was a bartender. I was born in a log cabin which I helped to build. My parents had twelve sons, all boys; I was the sixth child. If I had been born later I would have received a number instead of a name, as my parents became tired of hunting up names after my advent, and numbered the children. This system of naming worked excellently up to the tenth son. Then came another difficulty; neither my father nor my mother could count beyond ten.

At the tender age of seven I entered school, leaving once on account of my dislike for the teacher who expelled me. My father thinking the teacher had committed an indiscretion, interviewed him. There was no more school that year, since I was the only pupil. After this incident, not liking to see me idle, father gave me the job of keeping trespassers off our homestead which was thirty miles from the nearest neighbor. I consider this the hardest work I ever did.

When I was twenty I took up land along the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad; I took up several sections of land—with a shovel. I displayed each talent for management. I was appointed superintendent of a division which had been abandoned ten years before. I am proud to say not a single accident took place under my jurisdiction. From this position of trust I rose through the stations of head linesman of a wireless telegraph company to admiral of the Japanese Navy to the assistant Dictatorship of Russia till I reached my present position.

Many folks have asked me how I managed to be so popular every place I go, and how I happen to be able to always monopolize the spotlight. It is due to my determined personality, to my desire to be at the forefront. At a wedding I want to be the bride, at a trial I want to be the criminal and at the funeral I want to be the corpse.

I consider myself a selfmade man. I came into this world without a shirt on my back and now I have one or two.—The Sandstorm.

Canyon Eagles Lose To Happy Jacks

The Canyon Eagles dropped a conference game to the powerful Happy Jacks last Friday when they were over-ruled in the decision after the teams had played a 6-6 deadlock.

This is the first time in history, that the Eagles failed to defeat the Jacks or win on a decision. The teams battled to scoreless ties in 1929-30-31. Canyon getting the decision each time. Last year the Eagles defeated the Jacks on their home field 21-14.

The game was a thriller from start to finish. Both teams' chance of winning was very good until the last whistle. Both teams gained advantage over the other, but it was constantly a doubt as to whose ball it might be.

The Jacks scored their first touchdown early in the first quarter, when one of the famous "Harter to Barnard" passes was completed and Barnard raced 38 yards for a touchdown, untouched by a Canyon man.

Fumbles by Slack and Cox, which were recovered by Happy, placed the Jacks in scoring distance.

The Jacks threatened to score again in the second period when they advanced to the Canyon five yard stripe where the Eagles held them.

The Eagles score came early in the last period, after a pass from Slack to Clouch which netted 45 yards and placed the ball on Happy's 18 yard line. After four more plays, Sewell Cox smashed off tackle and scored standing up.

A. L. Barnard, Happy quarter, Cowan Harter, half back, and W. C. "Big" Barnard, were the men that threw the stick into Canyon's defense. A. L. Barnard was the best ground gainer for Happy, while the Harter-Barnard pass combination was responsible for the aerial success of the Jacks. Parvin, Heller, and Johnson were the defense stars for the victors.

The Canyon offense was led by Slack, S. Cox, and Clouch. The Canyon defense was led by Curtis Ellison, Dan Gerald, and Chris Wooten. Curtis Ellison threw Happy for loss after loss.

Despite this defeat, Canyon is still in the race for section honors.

Summary of game: Yards gained from scrimmage: Canyon 177, Happy 140.

Yards lost from scrimmage: Canyon 10, Happy 21.

First downs: Canyon 8, Happy 4. Passes: Happy tried 16, completed 6 for 70 yards, 1 intercepted. Canyon 5, completed one for 46 yards.

Punts: Happy 6 for 31 yard average, Canyon 3 for 29 yard average.

Penalties: Happy 5 for 25 yards Canyon 2 for 10 yards.

Scoring: Touchdowns: C. Barnard 1, Cox 1.

Report Cards Cause Much Excitement

"Say, look here! I deserve more than any 'C' in this course! I'm just going to go and tell her that my grades are as good as yours."

"Oh, Boy! I made an 'A' in history."

These are remarks that always follow the handing out of report cards.

Each class president takes the report cards for his or her room and hands them to the pupils of the class.

The class members smile, push each other, put their hands out for their cards and all but storm the president, who finds it hard to hold his own among the hustle and bustle.

"Greenfield is the name."

"Say, here I am; Plaster; oh don't pass it up!"

Everyone anxiously waits for the little slip of paper that means so much to each and every student of Canyon High School.

Miss Mattie Jordan spent the week end in Tulla.

Eagles To Play Borger Bulldogs Friday Night

Probably the best game to be played by the Eagles this season will be against the Borger Bulldogs, under the floodlights at Borger Friday night.

The Eagles played the Bulldogs last season in a game which kept the fans in constant frenzy for fear the other team would score. The Eagles held their opponents who were much superior in weight and experience, to a scoreless tie.

Both teams will be determined to win a victory this season, and will be fighting their hardest.

Senior English Classes Have Reunion 1953

"I guess you all remember the last time we were together," began Toastmistress Armor Lee Greenfield immediately after the nine o'clock bell rang Wednesday morning, at which time the senior English class held an imaginary reunion in 1953. The class was fortunate in having with it Mr. "Scoop" Elliston, who is still a bachelor and working in China.

Mr. Alton Brasuel and Captain "Speck" Williams are working in the aviation department of the Chinese government.

Mr. Owen Miller is also more interested in Chinamen than he used to be—at least she wasn't a Chinaman in 1933.

Mr. Carruth, the old high school superintendent, delighted the class with his presence. However, everyone who was present is asked to overlook his very rude act of sitting on the table. (Maybe that is a new 1953 custom.)

Misses Laura Ferne Brian and Dora Mae Plaster are teaching school. "Let's get together more often," was Miss Brian's closing plea in the short talk she made.

Mrs. Velma Crawford Thomas and her husband seem to be the big shots in the city of UMBARGER which now has 50,000 inhabitants, and is hardly recognizable.

Messrs. James Hill, Arthur Chambers and Wilson Hicks are engaged in the automobile business at present.

Misses Athalee Overton and Christine Shackelford are authorities on styles. From their descriptions, clothes are reduced to almost nothing.

If any of you need help in planting your corn next year, just call on Marion Tucker or Francis Leach.

Since quitting the stage, Miss Lulabell Johnson has taken up interior decoration in private homes. Miss Robbie Foster is now a journalist in New York.

As Miss Helen Hardman took a cold while crossing the Arkansas River, she was unable to give the class a talk, but honored them with her presence.

Mr. Ernest Duncan is quite air-minded now. He is a Trans-Atlantic air-mail pilot.

Mr. Dallas Zachry and Miss Mary Strain are working in the field of television; so see them and try their plan: "learn at home and stay in bed."

Misses Virginia Burgan and Geneva Whitman are working for the N. R. A. development.

All the spare time of the former Miss Myrtis Wright is taken by the education of her children.

Mr. Ray Miller and Misses Leona Hardman, Lorine Mickle and Lena Wade Jennings told the class of their everyday life. It seems the greatest improvement over 1933 is that bouncing springs take the place of alarm clocks.

As Mr. Dan Gerald is now in jail in China, he sent his regrets that he could not be with the class of '33 in this reunion.

Juniors Have First Party Tuesday Night

The Junior class of Canyon High School held a social last Tuesday night in the gymnasium of the grade school building for the enjoyment of its members.

If an outsider had gazed in at the windows, he would have seen a sight most pleasant. Some forty members of the class, together with several members of the faculty were busily entertaining and enjoying themselves with games of forty-two and dominoes.

After several hours of games, refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, cookies, and punch were served.

Pep Rally Held Friday Morning For Eagle Team

"We'll win, we'll win, we'll win, by golly, we'll win; we've done it before, we'll do it once more, we'll win by golly, we'll win!"

Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock, the girls of the two pep squads marched into the auditorium, giving the above yell, to open the last, big, final, pep rally before the Eagle-Happy game.

When the girls were seated, Mr. Carruth introduced the first speaker, Mr. W. H. Stroud. Mr. Stroud stressed the idea that all Canyon was behind the Eagles and wanted them to win by good, honest, clean fighting.

The second and last speaker was Dr. Sadoris, who takes care of the boys when anyone is injured at a game. Agreeing with Mr. Stroud, he stressed winning by clean, hard fighting. When the speakers were finished, Mr. Carruth explained that school would take up at 12:30 o'clock and would turn out at 1:30 o'clock to enable the busses to take home those students who live in the country and return to school in time to take the pep squad and band to Happy. Mr. Carruth said those students who desired to see the game at Happy and had no way to ride, would be able to go because some of the townspeople would be at the school house to take the students to Happy. When he finished, the pep squad took charge of the rest of the program.

The pep squad led in the singing of several pep songs, which were played by the C. H. S. band. Between the songs the pep squad and all of the rest of the students gave a few yells. The program closed with the singing of the Pledge Song.

Helen Hardman, Armor Lee Greenfield, Gailen Porter, Virginia Burgan, Myrtis Wright, Irene Thompson, Mary Mae Harrison, Bill Price, Mickey Schmitz, Leona Hardman and Sis Overton spent Friday night with Athalee Overton.

Miss Jewell Foster visited her parents in Dumas over the week end.

Dedication

To the Eagle team of '33 and '34 and to their coaches, we, the "Eagle's Tale" Staff wish to dedicate this issue of the paper.

The Eagle team, led by their captain "Scoop" Elliston, have defeated four of the five teams, they have met this year, and are working hard now to win district honors. Your courage, never ending fight and loyalty have gained for you not only the honor of victory, but respect of every student in high school and every citizen of Canyon, and of your opponents.

Home Economics Girls Initiate New Members

Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, at 7:00 o'clock the home economics girls met in the home economics room for the formal initiation of the new members.

The president, Laura Ferne Brian, and secretary, Mary Ella Lowe were in the room when a knock was heard. Miss Lowe answered the door. It was the new members, and the president gave them permission to enter.

They were seated when another knock was heard and the Spirit of Home Economics, Dora Mae Plaster, entered carrying a candle. She made a talk, then lighted the president's candle from the light of Home Economics. From this light each new member lit a candle and took the pledge.

Each new member was given a favor, which was a paper, telling her to wear, the following morning, a necklace of potatoes, a head band of dried fruit, one light and one dark anklet with bright ribbons tied around both ankles.

Refreshments consisting of punch and sandwiches were served by the officers of the club.

Mr. Carruth and Mr. Terry went to Amarillo Saturday to attend a meeting of the superintendents and principals of this district.

WHAT IS YOUR IDEA OF POPULARITY?

What is your idea of popularity? Are you popular just because you are your class president's best friend? Are you popular because you run around with a group of students who play hooky, who dress beautifully, who have lots of boy friends? Or are you popular because every boy or girl in school respects you? Maybe you do not care for intimate friendship of some students, but have you made them admire your ideals, admire your ways, admire you for your personality, and last but not least—RESPECT YOU. Isn't that your idea of popularity?

Football Squad Have Pictures Taken Thursday

The football squad paused in its signal drill Thursday afternoon long enough to have some pictures taken.

The different poses were: the first team standing, the first team in charging position, the second team in charging position, and both teams together.

Dallas Zachry spent the week end visiting his parents near Happy.

SAYS MRS. HOUSEWIFE

"MY COST OF ELECTRIC SERVICE"

is the very least of my worries—for electricity does more household jobs, adds more comfort and convenience to the home than any other item included in the family budget. There was a time when electricity was a luxury, but that time has long since passed. It is now very much a necessity, being vital to my family's health doing work, saving valuable time, providing real comfort, and brightening up the home—which, incidentally helps a lot toward clearing away the "depression-made" gloom so prevalent in homes now.

AND THE COST—YOU SCARCELY WOULD BELIEVE IT. ABOUT 10c A DAY IS ALL IT AVERAGES. WOULD I GRUMBLE ABOUT THAT? WELL, I SHOULD SAY NOT!"

NOTE:—For comparative purposes, electricity here in our little city is now 50 per cent less than it was before the war in 1933—while taxes are now more than twice as high as they were at their 1933 level. Think this over, folks!

1 pork loin
6 oranges, uniform size

Have a loin of pork prepared at the market with the chin bone sawed loose from the ribs. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, dredge with flour, and season with salt and pepper. Place it on a rack in an uncovered roasting pan without adding any water. Sear in a hot oven (480 F.) for 15 minutes or until nicely browned. Then quickly reduce the temperature to that of a slow oven (300 F.) and continue roasting until done. This requires about 30 minutes per pound.

Cut a slice off the top of the oranges and scoop out the pulp. Scallop the edges with a sharp knife. Pare and boil sweet potatoes. Mash. Mix with some of the orange pulp, season with salt, pepper and butter. Fill the orange cups with this mixture and place in the oven to heat. Two or three minutes before serving time, remove from the oven, top each orange with a marshmallow and put back in the oven to puff and slightly brown the marshmallows. P. T. A. Reception Thursday Night in School Auditorium

A formal reception was given for the teachers by the Parent-Teachers Association on the evening of Oct. 19, with about one hundred twenty-five parents and teachers present.

The public school band, under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Barker, entertained the crowd as it gathered in the high school auditorium. A program was held, Miss Irene Angel giving a reading, and Mrs. Lee Foster and Mrs. J. D. Barker playing two piano duets. Mrs. Griggs of Amarillo, the district president of the Parent-Teachers Association, gave an address on the early history and development of the Parent-Teachers Association in Texas, and the present relation between parents and teachers. Mrs. Griggs stressed the importance of child study and the responsibility resting upon the parents and school in making the child's schooling as profitable and successful as possible. Mrs. Griggs further stated that the Parent-Teachers Association is doing one of the greatest works in America at the present time.

After the main meeting in the auditorium, the group adjourned to the gymnasium for a social hour, and were served pumpkin pie, whipped cream, and coffee.

Pep Squad Girls Develop Lungs At Ball Game

"Stop! Look! Listen! That's our team!" The voice of the pep squad carries across the air. Then a silence. Waiting for the first kick-off. Every girl on her feet ready to "back those Eagle-birds."

"Hey, stop that man! Don't let him get through the line. Say, that is the stuff. Did you see that tackle!"

"Plop right through that line, Eagles!" These shouts all sound very loud and long from the part of the stadium where the pep girls are. Lemons are bitten into and passed around so the yelling power can keep up.

The pep girls are certainly developing their lungs, if yelling "will do the stuff."

Pep Squad Gives Eagles Picnic Monday Night

The Purple Peps with their sponsor, Mrs. Lee Foster, entertained the football squad, Coach Jones, Mr. Lee Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Carruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sanders, the assistant coach, Monday night, Oct. 23, with a picnic on the G. W. Cox creek. Sarah Bonnie Bourn took this group in her large truck. After arriving, games were played. The crowd enjoyed a picnic lunch of sandwiches, coffee, fruit, potato chips, marshmallows, pickles, lemonade, and cookies.

HOME EC. DEPT. SERVED BANQUET TO MEDICAL ASS'N.

Passing Grades Average Over 90% This Six Weeks

The records of Canyon High School show that during the last six weeks period (Sept. 4 to Oct. 13) approximately 90% of the grades received by the student body in general were well above failing, that is for the most part. The more accurate statistics were 90.6% passing grades compared to 9.4% failures. The general average of the passing grades received are as follows:

Number of A's	13.4%
Number of B's	24%
Number of C's	33.2%
Number of D's	20%
Total	90.6%

The average of the failures or near failures received were as follows:

Number of E's	5.7%
Number of F's	3.9%
Total	9.6%

The E's as yet, however, mean only incomplete work and can be made up by the completion of work that has not been handed in, otherwise they will be considered as failures.

Girl Scouts Went On Nature Hike Wed., Oct. 25th

On Thursday, Oct. 19, the Sandstorm or High School troop of the Canyon Girl Scouts met in Room 17 of the high school building. The eighteen girls who were present spent the greater part of the time discussing and planning a nature hike which will be taken next Wednesday from 3:15 to 8:45 p. m. After the supper to be cooked over an outdoor fire, a program of outdoor songs and nature talks will be presented around the camp-fire.

The Thistle or Grade School troop, which also met Oct. 19, but which met in the Scout Lodge, spent the greater portion of its program training eight new members for Tenderfoot work and in the organization of two new patrols, the Locust and the Prickly Pear. This division will also plan a hike in the near future.

Did You Know?

That the sophomores had a class party Oct. 21?

That the pep squad girls entertained the football boys Oct. 23 at G. W. Cox's?

Debate Club Starts Work

The first meeting of the Debate Club was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Plans for the club were discussed. It was decided that the club would elect a president and secretary. Armor Lee Greenfield, Dan Gerald, and Irene Thompson were appointed to serve on the nominating committee. The members of the club decided to order club pins soon. The remainder of the period was spent in studying the first lesson on the debate question for this year.

The question is "Resolved: That the United States should adopt a system of radio regulation and control similar to that of Great Britain."

The students who are planning to debate are: Mary Ella Lowe, Mary Ella Davis, Armor Lee Greenfield, Irene Thompson, Laura Ferne Brian, Mary May Harrison, Lorine Bessire, Rosa Cash, Dora Mae Plaster, Bobby Jo Cheyne, T. V. Slack, Alton Brasuel, Dan Gerald, Scoop Elliston, Speck Williams, Lester Clouch, Jack Oldham, Bob Orton, Ernest Duncan and Jackie Pitts.

Brasuel Attends Home Economics Conference

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel, home economics instructor of the Canyon High School attended the conference of Home Economics Instructors of the Panhandle district held in Amarillo Saturday.

The conference began at nine o'clock a. m. and continued until five o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Sibyl Thompson, district supervisor, was the chairman of the meeting.

Important discussions were held on the following subjects: "Home Economics in the R. F. C.," "The Use of Home Economics in the N. R. A.," "Home projects in relation to relief work," and "Teaching methods in Home Economics."

Sophomores Have Class Party Saturday Night

The Sophomore class with its sponsor, Mr. O. T. Barker had its first class party of the year, Saturday night, Oct. 21. Table games of authors, flinch, dominoes, and touring were played for a short time; then Mr. Barker took charge of the games and directed the playing of "Man, rabbit and gun." He then taught the students a new way of spelling words containing vowels. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were enjoyed greatly.

Meet the Eagles Squad of 1933

This article is written for the purpose of acquainting the people with the Eagle players and their past grid record.

First in line will be Francis "Scoop" Elliston, Eagle captain. "Scoop" plays right end and his playing number is 11. He is always easy to find on the field because he is either talking to the referee, snagging a pass, blocking some opponent player off his feet, or making a tackle. He was on the squad of 1931 but saw little service. Last season he became a star, being placed on the all bi-district second team. He is playing hard this year to help the Eagles win and to make that district team.

Sewell Cox, the boy who ran wild in the first game of the season of 1932, is a sophomore and will give someone a close race for a place on the all-district team this year. When you want to find Sewell, look for number 9, he will be carrying the ball for a touchdown or blocking someone's feet above his head so the totter can make a counter.

T. V. Slack was on the team last season and showed up rather well against his strong competition. He first played center but was later shifted to the backfield. Slack's playing number is 7, and he plays fullback on offense and safety on defense.

Chris Wooten played substitute tackle last season, playing enough to receive a letter, but is now playing center; he is an outstanding defensive player because of his hard tackling. You will know him by number 5.

Wesley Cox is a sophomore playing left guard. He was on the squad last year but didn't play enough to receive a letter. Wesley is a hard hitting lad known to you as number 8, and the team is depending on him two years more after this season.

Alton Brasuel, number 1, is a last year's letter man and member of the squad two years prior, but received little service until last season.

Dan Gerald plays right tackle and is one of the hardest hitting men on the team. Dan, known to you as number 14, was on the squad of 1932, but because of an injury, failed to see much service.

Willard Childress, a freshman playing his first football this season, is wearing number 13, the unlucky number. The team is depending on him for next year, but because of his age, he will be unable to play thereafter.

Watch that number 6 playing left end. He is Curtis Ellison, a last year's letterman and is a squadman of 1931. He is famed for his blocking but can tote the ball with noted skill when he snags a pass.

Lester Clouch has been on the squad for several years, but because he was still in grade school he wasn't eligible until this season. He plays quarterback, the brain work of the team, under number 10. He is a very good tackler and no slouch at carrying the ball.

Johnnie Wilson is the boy who can sidestep and yell, known as number 3. Johnnie is a 2-year letterman and is outstanding in the feat of sidestepping.

Wade Johnson, that plowing half back, is a letterman of 1932 and a squadman of 1931. His number is 12, and he is famed for his ball totting in that he never stops plowing until the whistle sounds.

The smallest man on the team plays substitute center; it is Roland Black, number 2. It seems as though he is trying to make center like his brother, J. M. With a little more weight he will succeed. He is always hustling but especially famed for his work of centering the ball where it is expected to be.

Next comes that fast boy, Edd Brooks. This is Edd's first year out and he is promising to be one of the fastest backs of the school's grid history. He plays under number 4.

Last comes Wesley "Speck" Williams. "Speck" received a broken collar bone in the Yannigan game and isn't expected to play any more this season. He played quarterback, and taking his place is Lester Clouch.

Pep Girls Go To Happy In School Busses

Did you know that the pep squad went to Happy Friday? Well, they did! They left the school about 2:30 o'clock in the school bus. On the way school songs, as well as many popular tunes were sung. Some members acted very wisely and took some food, which was enjoyed very greatly in spite of the dust. A great noise was raised among the girls as they reached Happy. The bus continued to rattle on until it reached the field about 3:15 o'clock, where the girls gave vent to all their excitement and energy in yells—long and loud.

Greenfield and Plaster Write History Play

Armor Lee Greenfield and Dora Mae Plaster are writing a play to be given in chapel by members of the Texas History class.

This play will be on some subject pertaining to Texas History. The interesting material they are collecting promises a very interesting play, with lots of humor and sincerity.

Pep Squad Gives Stunt at Happy

When the Pep Squad went to Happy to cheer the Eagles in the game with the Happy Jacks, it certainly let Happy know it was there rooting for the Eagles. When the whistle blew for the half intermission, the Pep Squad went out on the field to give its stunt. The girls formed a line at each corner of the field on either side at the fifty yard line. Keeping time to the music played by the Canyon band, the girls marched out on the field, each line forming a letter spelling out the word, "Eagles." They all knelt down on the ground together and each group yelled its letter. To the music, they marched back to their places on the sidelines.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Coffee, Willeford Entertain Students Thursday, Oct. 19

Thursday, Oct. 19 the students of Canyon High School were entertained during the assembly period with several violin numbers by Mr. Herschel Coffee, accompanied at the piano by Miss Lilla Beth Burroughs, an ex-student of C. H. S.

Rev. James D. Willeford, minister of the Church of Christ, gave an interesting talk to the student body on student attitude toward school, teachers, football, friends, and the town.

After the program, the student body was led in two yells by Mable Schmitz and Wilma Price. The school song was sung for the concluding number.

"We owe his life to that faithful friend"

Peaceful stillness of a winter night was broken by the hoarse cough of a child. Mrs. Peery bent over the little white crib for a minute. Then, she hurried to the telephone.

"Doctor... please hurry!" The doctor's face was grave... "Diphtheria. It's going to be a hard fight. We must operate. It's our one chance."

Along the wires another message flashed. A skilled surgeon and a trained nurse came. A child's life was saved.

Mrs. Peery says: "Today, as I look at my sturdy boy, I know we owe his life to that ever faithful friend within our home."

If that family never uses the telephone again, it will have been repaid a hundredfold for all it has paid for telephone service. Yet, daily the telephone brings comfort, pleasure, and often money to most of us.

You can buy few things which cost so little and are worth so much.

Guleke Gives 400 Books to Library of County Schools

Hon. J. O. Guleke, member of the State Board of Education, has given Judge S. B. Orton 400 books which will be placed in the library of the Randall County Schools. The books are supplemental readers and texts which were submitted by publishers to all members of the State Board of Education when bids were asked on texts for the state.

Mr. Guleke gave the sample books to Potter county last year. Judge S. B. Orton was very grateful for the books which are added to the rural school library which was started last year. All of the rural teachers are co-operating with Judge Orton in building a serviceable library for the use of the children of the county.

Barracks

(Continued from first page) will not be furnished housing facilities at the camp. Canyon and Amarillo carpenters and other workmen will live at home, and drive to the camp daily.

Five barracks will be erected for each of the three companies. It is still uncertain whether the fourth company will be moved here the first of December, but Congressman Marvin Jones is doing all in his power to induce the war department to send these men. The National Park Service has recommended the fourth camp owing to the large amount of work that must be done.

Judge S. B. Orton and Commissioner G. B. Heath will keep a grading outfit on the road east from Canyon in order that the road may be in good shape all of the time and under all weather conditions. The traffic will be exceedingly heavy during the coming month owing to the trucks and cars necessary to haul the materials and transport the men to the camps.

Recruits have been coming in daily to fill the three companies to full strength. There were over 500 men in the three companies yesterday, and each company is expected to be recruited to full strength by the end of the week.

G. L. Nason of Austin, engineer for the National Park Service, was here Monday inspecting the camp. He made plans for the location of the permanent buildings of the park, including the lodges, cabins, and natural museum.

Services in the morning at 11 o'clock. Afternoon services at 2:30 o'clock. Basket dinner will be served at noon. All visitors are welcome.

Plans Being Made For Annual Roll Call of Red Cross

Plans are under way for staging the annual Red Cross Roll Call for the Randall County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

W. A. Warren, chairman of the Roll Call committee, has announced that an intensive campaign will be held in Randall County in an effort to raise a greater number of memberships for this chapter than in previous years. Mr. Warren points to a number of things which would bring a greater response this year than heretofore.

Until last year this county felt little need of the services of the American Red Cross other than through the school clinics which had been held here. However during the past 12 months, without the aid of the Red Cross in furnishing flour and clothing, the handling of the relief work in this county would have been a matter of far more serious consideration than it was.

Faced with extensive drought damages there appears to be a dire need for further extension of assistance from the Red Cross on a larger scale than during the past 12 months. Anticipated relief needs of the coming months should warrant an increased effort locally to raise more for relief purposes, it is said. It is stated that only 50 cents of every membership, whether for $1.00 or $10.00 goes to the national chapter, the other amounts remain in the treasury of the local chapter for local benefits.

Commenting on the work of the school clinics conducted in the past by the Red Cross, N. E. McIntire, chairman of the Randall County Chapter, points out that it is the hope of the local organization to conduct another clinic as soon as funds of the Chapter will allow such a clinic.

The annual Roll Call dates are from November 11-30, Armistice to Thanksgiving.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

U. S. C., Pitt, Colgate and Utah Still Are in the Running, but the Grid Picture Has Changed in Other Respects

BY PHILIP MARTIN

WITH the football season warming up, early season action on the gridiron indicates that Pitt and Colgate again dominate the field in the east; Southern California looks like a winner on the west coast, and Utah is favored to cop the Rocky Mountain title again.

But that's as far as the favorites get. In the rest of the major football conferences, new hopes have risen to blast the optimism of last year's winners.

In the south, Tennessee and Alabama were early season favorites. But Alabama was tied by Mississippi and Duke came along and ruined Tennessee's chances by an upset victory of 10-2. That puts Duke up there as the favored son of the south.

The Blue Devils surmounted their toughest hurdle when they beat the Vols, and they should have rather easy sailing from now on.

THE Big Ten boys were figuring Purdue to be a cinch to cop the bunting in that league, with Michigan, last year's champs, ready to fall in if Purdue slumped. Well, Purdue slumped in its first conference game, being run ragged and forced to do everything on the menu to score a 7-7 tie with Minnesota.

Previous to that upset, Iowa, an underdog since 1929, came along and soused Northwestern with a 7-0 licking. Then came Illinois, with a 21-0 victory over Wisconsin. At the same time, Ohio State was showing its greatest team in years and Chicago was demonstrating a lot of new-found power under Clark Shaughnessy.

That puts things in a muddle in the Big Ten. But the muddle has served to unearth a couple of stars who'll do a lot of shining before the year's over. They are Les Lindberg, a sophomore back found at Illinois, who was responsible for the win over Wisconsin; and Dick Crayne, a newcomer at Iowa, who downed Northwestern in that upset nearly single-handed.

So it is in the Big Six and Southwestern Conferences.

Two newly-discovered twinklers in the football firmament are Dick Crayne, left, an up-and-coming fullback at the University of Iowa, and Les Lindberg, right, the Illinois sophomore back who was a big factor in the win over Wisconsin.

Nebraska has dominated the picture in the former conference for years. But now it finds itself with stiff competition from Kansas and Kansas State, either team having a good chance to win the honors.

In the southwestern loop, Texas Christian has been top dog for some time. But along came Arkansas to whip that school and Baylor and take the lead.

SUCH changes in the football picture have made for bigger games.

In no field of sport does the public relish a long-time champick. They'll turn out in large numbers to see a champion defend his laurels, but the cheers are for the challenger in most cases.

Baseball has proved that a close pennant race will draw more than a one-sided affair. This was displayed definitely in the 1932 National and American League seasons, when the National circuit, featuring a close fight among Chicago, Pittsburgh and Brooklyn, pulled heavy gates, while the American League, with a near walk-away for New York, found the fans staying away in droves at some parks.

And so it is with football.

Goldbugs

(Continued from first page) for the Murrayland citizens. He is a power plunger and can be depended upon for the necessary inches or feet to make a first down.

Captain "Cow" Williams will lead the attack for the Thundering Herd, and his fast off-tackle plays and power plunges into the line are expected to gain much territory for the Maroon and White.

Holston will be calling the game, and his fast deceptive running will be one of the Bison's best bets.

Morgan is another fast light runner. He is 155 pounds of blazing fury and ready to go during the entire game.

Jack Spence, who is also a good ball totter, is used mostly to clear the way for the other mail carriers. So far, he has shown excellent ability.

"Pest" Martindale, last year's Freshman star, will be used as a reserve. He is the Buffs' best punter and a good passer.

In the line, are Boyd and Kendrick at end. Boyd is known as a fast hard-hitting tackler, while Kendrick fills the bill at end position and drops back to punt too.

Manning and Walker, two giants, fill the bill at tackles. Walker is known for his punt-blocking and Manning for his tackles.

Lovelace and Teague are the regular guards, and both are well placed. They charge and manage to get in the way of the best plays made.

Poe, former Fish and Pampa star, has done well during the year at center position. John Pool is substitute for him.

Al Duncan is the Bison utility man, playing well in the backfield and line.

In the O. C. U. line will be found an array of charging weights. Last year their line averaged 203 pounds and is reputed to be as heavy again.
